

Residency in Switzerland

We advise and accompany you through the process of taking up residency in Switzerland. Thanks to our long-standing experience and well-established relations with local authorities we are able to arrange for advantageous conditions. We know what's essential to make you feel comfortable in your new home town.

HOW WE ASSIST YOU

Together we define the essential criteria that your future domicile must meet. Based on your preferences we identify the most suitable residential areas for you and provide calculations of the estimated tax burden while you select your future place of residence.

We assist you in finding a suitable rental object or real estate property to buy and to apply for all the necessary permits and tax agreements with the relevant authorities. After your move we continue to monitor your tax and legal situation in order to anticipate legislative changes in good time.

YOUR ADVANTAGES

Thanks to our longstanding experience and well-established relations with the local authorities we offer individual solutions swiftly and effectively. Our international orientation also allows us to show you attractive alternatives in other countries.

With our optimal company size we provide you with extensive and tailor-made advise on establishing a new residency, and also ensure individual client care along with the necessary discretion.

OUR SERVICES

We advise and accompany you from evaluating residential areas, looking for real estate property and applying for all the permits to negotiating taxation in Switzerland, registering in the place of residence and completing the annual tax return.

- Comprehensive advising on various residential locations based on a catalogue of criteria.*
- Assisting in finding rental accommodations or real estate property (incl. handling of purchase and contracts).*
- Negotiating with the Swiss tax authorities regarding taxation (lump-sum or ordinary taxation).*
- Preparing and filing of tax returns and continuous assistance in tax optimisation.*
- Advising and assisting on obtaining the necessary permits from the authorities.*
- Tax-optimised wealth structuring and management before and after relocating to Switzerland.*